The La Roca Difference

Fee Breakdown:

La Roca Club Fee: La Roca FC is fully operational in 5 areas of Utah (Davis/Weber, SLC, Utah County, Spanish Fork and St George). This club fee includes compensation for Directors of Coaching, administrators, registrars, and goalkeeper trainers. Through this fee we offer continued coaching education and team equipment. The club fee also includes misc items such as: insurance, Worker's Compensation, payroll processing fees, bank fees, credit card service fees, events, tryouts, marketing, office supplies and other related expenses.

UYSA Required Fees: (for all clubs) Registration and League Fees are paid to Utah Youth Soccer Association and include the cost of player insurance and league administration.

Legacy Field Fee is collected by UYSA for the development of new fields in all regions.

Region 2 Fee: Region Fee covers services provided by Region 2, including referee assigning and training.

Indoor Training: La Roca uses top-notch indoor training facilities such as La Roca Park, Zions Bank Real Academy and the La Roca Pleasant Grove Training Center. This cost is applied to every La Roca North, Salt Lake and South player.

Outdoor Training: La Roca provides access to secured outdoor fields for all areas which include: La Roca Park, Utah County Complex and Field Fee: La Roca secures the Regional Athletic Center (RAC), the Utah County Complex, and various county and school fields for all league games.

Ref Fee: Covers the cost of paying league game referees.

Training Fee: La Roca has the most A, B & C licensed coaches in the state with access to our customized curriculum and methodology. This fee is the compensation for your coach with related payroll taxes included. The training fees will increase with age and level of play, as coaches spend more time training older teams and/or premier teams.
